CULTURAL TOUR OF TURKEY

In celebration of her rich history and cultural heritage

September 17 – October 2, 2006

This tour is specially developed by Turkish Cultural Foundation experts, a 501(c)3 public charitable non profit organization established in 2000 with offices in Boston, Washington DC and Istanbul. The tour includes visits to all three Ottoman capitals and important Anatolian Seljuk towns, as well as select antique cities and archeological sites. This cultural immersion tour will take you to Istanbul, Edirne, Iznik, Bursa, Safranbolu, Ankara, Amasya, Tokat, Sivas, Kayseri, Cappadocia, Konya and Antalya over 16 days. The Tour offers first-class accommodations throughout and is designed as a journey through the rich cultural history of Anatolia, highlighting cultural heritage sites of Turkey, while providing a taste of over thousand years of Anatolian Turkish culture through private performances and demonstrations of Turkish music, dance and art.

Providing participants an unforgettable culinary experience, meticulously designed menus will showcase local and regional tastes, in addition to the best examples of Ottoman and Turkish cuisine.

The price for the Grand Tour of Turkey is $ 4,200 per person for double occupancy and $ 4,900 for single occupancy. The price is all inclusive except for air travel to Istanbul.
